

Green Dream Company develops sustainable tourism. From concept-& project creation to organizational development. They do that in the Netherlands and in emerging markets in Africa. Sustainability, culture and nature are important keywords for them.

Job description:

Green Dream Company has a very small active team. They are currently looking for an representative and assertive intern with a hands-on mentality to support their team and to strengthen the organization. The trainee will work from their head office in Zaltbommel. He/she will provide practical assistance with placing their (international) services and projects in the market in the field of sustainable tourism and organizational development in the tourism sector.

Requirements for the attention of the (trainees):

At work, the intern (s) will get in contact with various ministries, chambers of commerce, universities, embassies, business, NGOs and interns, agents and relationships from African countries. We expect the intern (s) to have affinity with the Netherlands and Africa.

Study Level: College level (HBO), advanced courses in sustainable tourism, international communication, international business & economics or similar relevant training.

Language requirements: Excellent English and Dutch speaking and writing skills.

Computer literacy: WP, Excel, CRM, new media.

Availability: 32 to 40 hours (Friday is a home working day) for a minimum period of 5 months. The internship is available by September 1st.

Other: Analytical strong, assertive, proactive, creative, enthusiastic, good writing skills and interest in other cultures.

Green Dream Company is a global organization. With equal appropriateness, given the team composition and character of their services and projects, they will give preference to an intern (s) with an African background or life experience with African

Interested? If you would like further information about the internship you can call with Leontine van Hooft, Director, phone 0418517435. A short letter of motivation and CV, please mail us at: info@greendreamcompany.com